Chauncey M. Depew on the Tragedy at Garrisons.

NOW SAID BUT NINETEEN ARE DEAD

Further Details of the Train Wreck. Identification of the Killed—Searching the Bottom of the River. The Wrecked Cars Burned.

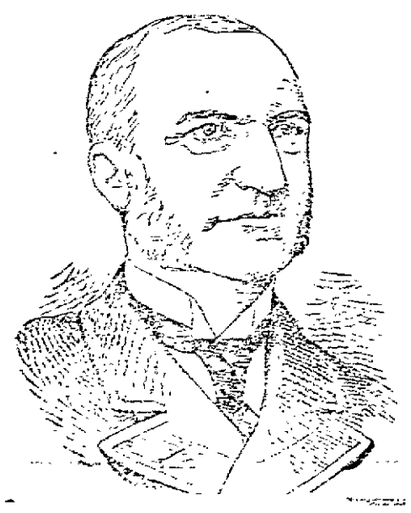
NEW YORK, Oct. 26. — President Chauncey M. Depew of the New York Central railroad has telegraphed to the board of railroad commissioners asking that an investigation of the catastrophe at Garrisons be made as quickly as possible. The telegram reads as follows:

"I would request that your investigation of the accident upon our line near Garrisons might be had at the earliest possible moment, and if you will name the day and place I will see that you are in possession of all the information we possess and that the officers of the company are in attendance."

The complete list of the killed, which the railroad officials believe includes all of those who could possibly be lost, is as follows:

Engineer John C. Foyle of East Albany, body still in the river; Fireman John Q. Tompkins of East Albany, body still in the river; Samuel Williams of 781 Best street, Buffalo; Thomas Riley of St. Louis; W. H. G. Myers of Tremont, N. Y.; A. G. McKay of Harlem, N. Y., body still in the river; E. A.



CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.

Green of Chicago; William Schenckenbecker of 99 South Thirteenth street, Newark, N. J., otherwise known as William S. Becker; Giuseppe Taguana of 28 Park street, New York city; Mrs. Robert Lindsman of Utica, N. Y.; unknown woman, not yet identified; Chin Lee Song of San Francisco, on his way to make New York his residence; Chin Fong Hop, brother of Chin Lee Song; Hop Wuh of New York; Lee Tong Sing of 17 Mott street, New York; unknown Chinaman, with letter to Hop Sing of Newark, N. J.; Wong Gim, residence unknown; two unknown Chinamen; total, 19.

At the Scene of the Wreck.

GARRISONS, N. Y., Oct. 26.—The incidents and features at the scene of the big railroad accident of Sunday have had a tinge of the dramatic around them, the contrasts of light and shade being somewhat remarkable. Had it not been for the fact that torrents of rain poured down all yesterday afternoon the New York Central railroad would have had an excursion upon its hands larger than any one for many years. As it was, train load after train-load of curiosity seekers either landed at the stations near by the point of the wreck and walked through the drenching rain to stand there and stare at the burning embers and mutilated cars or else rode down on the trains to the vantage point.

And in a measure this travesty upon the intelligent appreciation of a calamitous event was repeated in another form at the coroner's office in Cold Spring, where 16 of the dead bodies lay. Of those 16, eight were heathen foreigners, whose names or residences meant scarcely nothing to the general public, and yet six of these eight were identified and claimed long before any person had come forward to inquire or seek for two well dressed and evidently respectable Christian white women, the only women killed in the wreck. In the morgue they lay, unclaimed and unsought, while the other dead were claimed and taken care of. The 16 bodies that were held at Cold Spring for identification and to be claimed by relatives were divided between the undertaking establishments of J. Y. McKeel and W. McIlvary.

These places were besieged by crowds of the curious, but only those who might in any way establish the identity of the victims were admitted to look upon them. The first body identified yesterday was that of Samuel Williams, 781 Best street, Buffalo, who died after being taken out of the wreck and while on his way to the Peekskill hospital. The body was removed from Peekskill to Cold Spring and later was identified by the man's brother, Henry C. Williams, and Rev. August Goetz, pastor of the Bartholomew Evangelical church of Buffalo.

It was a very pathetic picture that was presented by the brother and his pastor as they clasped hands over the body of the dead man and wept together. The body was shipped to Buffalo.

The Chinamen, who it was supposed would have to be buried at the county's expense, were for the most part identified by prominent Celestials from New York. All but two or three were identified by Sam Ping Lee, vice president of the Chinese Equal Rights league of 4 Mott street, New York, and by Charles T. Sing, an Americanized Chinaman and court interpreter of Third street, New York.

Most of the Chinamen lived in New York. Chin Lee Song and Chin Fong Hop were brothers, who lived in San Francisco and were on their way to New York to live, being in charge of their father, Chin Quong Hon of 15 Mott street, and who is now among the injured in the Peekskill hospital. Hoo Wuh, 50 years of age and for a number of years a resident of New York, was on his way home from a visit to San Francisco.

Yesterday during the afternoon a number of employees of a Mott street undertaker reached Cold Spring prepared to take the eight dead Mongolians to New York for burial. They were acting for the Chong Wah Kung Saw, a Chinese benevolent society, which had planned to have the eight victims of the disaster buried in the Celestials' plot in Evergreens cemetery tomorrow.

The undertakers here brought with them eight coffins. This caused a question between the Chinamen and the undertakers of Cold Spring. The New Yorkers got the necessary burial permits from the coroner, and in the evening the Cold Spring undertakers took the bodies to the railroad station to turn them over to the friends of the Chinamen from New York city. The local undertakers had already placed the bodies in coffins, and the other undertakers refused to take the bodies unless they were taken out of the Cold Spring coffins and placed in the coffins which they had brought with them. No agreement of this kind could be made, so the undertakers took the bodies back to their respective morgues.

George C. Green of Buffalo, general counsel of the Lake Shore railroad, arrived at Cold Spring and identified his nephew, Edwin A. Green of Chicago. He said that the young man, who was 32 years of age, had called on him in Buffalo a few days ago, being on his way to New York. The body was last night shipped to Binghamton, where Edwin's mother lives, and where he will be buried. One of the two women was identified as Mrs. Mary Lindsman of Utica, N. Y. She was identified by her husband, Robert Lindsman, a tailor, who said that his wife left home on Saturday night to go to Croton on a visit to her mother. Mrs. Lindsman was 24 years old and was a good looking woman. Her husband was very much affected when he saw his wife's dead body.

A diver named I. J. Merritt made a search for the bodies of the engineer and fireman and Superintendent Van Etten's clerk, Mr. McKay. Before the diver entered the water he was approached by F. Tompkins, an engineer on the New York Central and a brother of Tompkins, the fireman who is dead at the bottom of the river. Tompkins asked him to do everything possible to secure the bodies, and he was joined in the request by Frank Foyle, a brother of the dead engineer. The diver promised to make a vigorous search for the bodies and was gone for 25 minutes. When he came up, he declared that it was his belief that the bodies were some distance away from the wrecked engine.

A revolting feature of the day while the search for the dead was in progress was the presence of sandwich and hot frankfurter venders, who went through the crowd offering their wares for sale in shrill tones. The camera lovers were on the spot, and anything just out of the ordinary was a mark for a snap shot. The spectators were finally rewarded for their vigil by seeing the derrick hoist the last two sleeping cars, the Hermes and the Niobe, out of the water and place them on a transport. The cars were towed down the river and set on fire, as were also the other coaches.

The two divers were also the objects of much attention, and the crowd watched their every movement with open mouthed wonderment. The relic seeker was particularly active. Anything and everything pertaining to the wreck was a treasure of great value. Pieces of wood from the cars, pillows, glass, toiletoths and the like were eagerly seized and carried away.

Lucky He Missed His Train.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Henry Bayler of Jamaica Plain, who was supposed to be among the missing in the New York Central and Hudson River railroad wreck, has arrived home. He left Montreal on a palace sleeping car attached to the St. Lawrence and Adirondack regular express. Ordinarily, that car connects with the New York Central train at Albany, but it missed its connection with the ilfated express.

A Regiment Reported Lost.

ROME, Ga., Oct. 26.—Telegraphic orders were received here this morning from the war department directing the Fifth infantry regiment, now on the way from Chickamauga to Atlanta, to go at once to Nashville, but the orders are still undelivered because the entire regiment is lost and no trace of its movements recently is obtainable. It is supposed that the regiment had insufficient guides and has become entangled in the passes of the north Georgia mountains. A determined effort to find it will be made at once.

Will Demand a Recount.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 26.—Ex-Senator William D. Edwards said yesterday that an application will be made this week to the supreme court for a mandamus to have a recount of the ballots cast at the special election on the constitutional amendments. Mr. Edwards represents clients who contend that the antigambling amendment was defeated, instead of being carried by 801 majority.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The appointments of fourth class postmasters are: New York—Whippleville, H. G. Lyman. Pennsylvania—Bishop, L. W. Pollock; Crafton, A. Turtle; West Elizabeth, Annie B. Rike. Delaware—Union, J. B. Eastburn.

AFFAIRS IN ALASKA.

Captain Ray Reports to the War Department.

GIVES MUCH NEWS OF THE KLONDIKE

It Is Confidently Expected the Disputed Southeastern Boundary Line Will Come Up Again When Congress Assembles In December.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The war department has just received an interesting report from Captain Ray on the condition of affairs in the Alaskan gold region as he has found them from St. Michaels to Fort Yukon, supplemented by the accounts of the most reliable persons he could communicate with as to the state of affairs in the Klondike and neighborhood.

Captain Ray, who was sent especially for the purpose of making recommendations, urges the division of Alaska into two districts, the northern district, including the gold region, to be placed under a form of military government until congress can make other provisions.

One place selected by the captain for a military post is near Rapid City, about 250 miles below Dawson.

Several new routes are discussed by Captain Ray, and he says he is reliably informed that from Cook Inlet via the head of Copper river will be the shortest and most practicable route for railroad communication with the open sea. Up to the present time the laws in the country have not been enforced, nor does there exist any means for enforcing them, so all disputes are settled by miners' meetings.

As part of his scheme for military government of the northern territory he suggests that a court be established at the capital, the appointment of a commissioner of mines to settle disputes as to title and the passage by congress of a code of laws for the territory.

In a supplemental report Captain Ray notes the arrival of the transportation company's steamer Weare with a cargo of 200 tons of provisions. The captain says she is the last boat of the season. When navigation closes, he says, there will be 500 tons of provisions at Fort Yukon, and he will do what he can to assist in forwarding supplies.

The Boundary Tangle.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—It is believed here, in view of the great prominence Alaska has achieved owing to the recent gold discoveries and the importance of definitely fixing the boundary line between our territory and that of the Dominion of Canada, that the senate, when it assembles in December, will take action upon the treaty pending between Great Britain and the United States for the survey and marking of the southeastern boundary. This treaty was sent to the senate almost two years ago. The settling of the difficulties between the two countries regarding the southeastern line has not progressed since then. In 1893 each government appointed a commissioner to survey the territory through which this line runs, and each made topographical maps of the country, which were submitted to the respective governments.

These commissioners, however, had no power to propose a settlement. Their work was confined strictly to furnishing information upon which subsequent negotiations could proceed.

News of a Klondike Murder.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 26.—The passengers of the steamer Farallones, which arrived here from Alaska, bring the news of a murder committed near Lake Tagish Oct. 1. Two men from Seattle named Henderson and Peterson quarreled over a trivial matter, and Henderson, after stabbing Peterson with a bowie knife several times, drew a revolver and beat his victim's head into a jelly. Henderson was arrested and bound to a tree for ten days, until the arrival of the Canadian mounted police, who took him to Dawson City for trial.

Girl Killed by a Truck.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 26.—Margaret Wixon, the 5-year-old daughter of Frank Wixon, a dredger of 212 Thirty-third street, while crossing Fourth avenue at Thirty-third street last night was run over by a heavy truck and killed instantly. The wheels passed over her heart, crushing in the ribs and breaking her neck. The driver of the truck whipped up his horses and drove away at a rapid rate. The police are looking for him.

Brunner on Starvation in Havana.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—In his last weekly report to Surgeon General Wyman, Sanitary Inspector Brunner of the Marine Hospital service reports seven deaths from starvation in Havana for the week ended Oct. 7, and 21 for the week ended Oct. 14. He also reports a rapid increase in intestinal diseases, due to the contracted food supply, estimating that two-fifths of the total deaths of the city are due to this cause.

The Fever Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Reports reaching Surgeon General Wyman shows new cases and deaths from yellow fever as follows: New Orleans, 52 new cases, 11 deaths; Memphis, 1 new case; Edwards, Miss., 1 new case; County Farm, Hines county, Miss., 1 new case; Bay St. Louis, Miss., 6 new cases, 2 deaths; Scranton, Miss., 12 new cases; Pascagoula, Miss., 1 new case; Biloxi, Miss., 14 new cases, 1 death.

Who Will Succeed Henry W. Sage?

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Ex-Governor Flower, Andrew Carnegie and Joseph C. Hendrix are all mentioned as possible successors to the late Henry W. Sage as chairman of the board of trustees of Cornell university. The election takes place next week.

DEAD MAN ARRESTED

Jersey City Policeman Takes Corpse In Charge.

THOUGHT IT WAS A CASE OF DRINK.

The Clever Bluecoat Sent For the Patrol Wagon and Aided by Two Fellow Officers Lifted the Cadaver Into It.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 26.—Policeman Mahoney arrested a dead man in this city yesterday and arraigned him before the sergeant at the desk of the Seventh street station. Dr. Hoffman of 461 New Jersey avenue was called, and he said the man had been dead several hours.

He added that he believed death had resulted from heart disease, but agreed with the police that the man had been drinking, owing to the odor which came from his clothing. The body was removed to Speer's morgue. The police of the Second precinct, under Captain Kelly, then began an investigation and learned that the dead man was John Collins and that he had a room at 419 Grove street.

He was employed in a New York factory, and on Saturday night, after paying for his lodging, he went out. He was then in a condition bordering on intoxication. After visiting several saloons in the neighborhood he suddenly disappeared.

Policeman Mahoney, while patrolling Pavonia avenue, glanced into the hallway at 153.

"This looks like a good case of all night drunk," he mused, and then called the patrol.

With the assistance of two brother officers the man was carried to the wagon and then taken to the station. Three officers lifted the corpse and placed it upon its feet. Two bluecoats supported the arms, and the third grasped the coat collar.

The eyes of the dead man were dilated, and his ghastly smile sent a shiver creeping down the sergeant's back.

"Get a doctor, quick, and lay that prisoner on a table in the side room!" he exclaimed in a horrified tone.

Dr. Hoffman came in a few minutes, and when he said the man was dead when arrested there was much excitement among the policemen in the station. A search of the clothing disclosed 35 cents in change. The man was dressed like the ordinary factory worker.

The people at the Grove street house know nothing about Collins. He had been there only a short time, and they refused to take charge of the body.

Death yesterday also visited the house next door to that in which Collins was found dead. George Cronan, one of the lodgers, was found dead in the hallway when the landlady went up stairs to awaken some one. Cronan's death was due to heart disease.

Suspected of Being a Firebug.

GOUVERNEUR, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Pitcairn Forks, a small Adirondack settlement 16 miles from this village, is much excited over the burning of Fred Evans' residence and V. J. Van Ornum's store. The loss in each case is small, not more than $1,000, but the suspicious circumstances connected with the fires have inflamed the minds of the villagers to a high pitch. Leslie Crowder, who resides near Jayville, has been arrested, and a quantity of goods from the store was found on his premises. There is considerable indignation against the prisoner owing to the circumstances connected with the fires, but the law probably will be allowed to take its course.

General Louis Fitzgerald Ill.

TOPEKA, Oct. 26.—General Louis Fitzgerald of New York city, a director of the Missouri Pacific railroad and president of the Mercantile Trust company of New York, was taken from his private car here to the Santa Fe hospital. General Fitzgerald and Mr. E. W. Kretch came here to consult with the attorneys for the Merchants' Trust company. Upon arriving, General Fitzgerald was taken suddenly ill, and it was feared that he could not be taken from his car. He has a high fever, and other complications are feared.

Sues For Heavy Damages.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 26.—W. C. Egerton of New York has brought suit against John H. Starin, the New York millionaire boat line proprietor, claiming $100,000 damages. The boats and other property belonging to the defendant in this city have been attached as surety in the case. The suit, according to the allegation, is for the adjustment of an account running back to the time the New York and New Haven line of boats was established.

To Fight Diphtheria Plague.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 26. [illegible] meeting will be held in Orange, a suburb of this city, this evening to take some step to protect the residents from diphtheria, which has been spreading to an alarming extent. From a neglected case in one of the public schools the disease got a strong hold on the children of the town, and up to date there have been 28 cases, with 10 deaths. New cases of the disease have been developing ever since the first outbreak, in July last, and the residents have at last taken the task in hand of stamping out the disease.

Those Mail Box Thefts.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—J. H. Ogle and Robert Russell, the men arrested in New York on suspicion of being implicated in extensive letter box robberies, were brought from New York yesterday by United States Marshal McCarty. They are held as witnesses against the members of the gang who were arrested here.

THE TERRIFIC GALE.

Havoc Wrought at Ocean City and Other Places on the Coast.

OCEAN CITY, Md., Oct. 26.—The storm of the last two days was the worst in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. The wind attained the proportions of a hurricane, and the surf ran four feet deep across the beach into Sinepuxont bay. The board walk south from Trimper's hotel is entirely washed away for some distance, and north from the same point it is broken in places. The large porches of Congress hall, Trimper's, the Eastern Shore hotel, Cropper's pavilion, Atlantic hotel and Meyer cottage are completely wrecked. The immense fishpound of the Ocean City Fishing company was carried out to sea. The Cambridge hotel was nearly wrecked. A large two masted schooner was sunk in the bay after being driven against the drawbridge. The damage will reach thousands of dollars.

Oyster Houses Flooded.

MILLVILLE, N. J., Oct. 26.—The big tides in the Maurice river have flooded all the oyster houses at Maurice River station and Bivalve, and several houses have been blown over on the meadows. The oysterboats are dragging on the meadows, and much damage is being done to the vessels. Telegraph wires are all down, and the people are moving their furniture out in boats. The Ocean City, Sea Isle and Maurice river branches of the West Jersey railroad are all submerged.

WORD FROM LEO XIII.

The Pope Says the Schroeder Case Is In the Hands of the Bishops.

ROME, Oct. 26.—Cardinal Rampolla authorizes the denial of papal interfention in the case of Professor Schroeder of the Catholic university at Washington and says that the matter is entirely in the hands of the bishops.

Surprise In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The statement in the above dispatch of the attitude of the pope in the case of Mgr. Schroeder was a matter of considerable surprise here in view of the statement issued by the board of directors of the Catholic university at its meeting last week that it had left the final decision of the matter to the holy father. It is believed that the authorities at Rome probably have received some information on the subject which has caused the pope to change his mind, and, believing that the affair had best be settled by the directors of the university, he had determined on that course.

Would Not Censure the Professor.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Oct. 26.—The synod of Pennsylvania, representing all the Presbyterian churches of Pennsylvania and West Virginia, in its sessions here effectually squelched a proposition to censure the members of the faculty of Princeton university who signed the application for the liquor license of the Princeton inn, the adverse action being mainly due to the fact that a large part of the 300 commissioners—the synod [illegible] the graduates of Princeton or of the seminary. The matter came up on an overture from the presbytery of Red Stone, which passed strong resolutions of censure. The committee simply reported that they had no jurisdiction of the matter, and their report was hurriedly put and carried without any discussion.

Killed In a Riot.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 26.—A riot occurred in the mining village of Brodericks, this county. Bad feeling has existed for some time past between proprietors of two boarding houses, John Politch and George Hornick. Filled with liquor, the partisans of Politch attacked Hornick's house with stones, axes and clubs. They had nearly demolished the building, when John Garva, a boarder, fired from an upstairs window with a winchester rifle directly into the crowd. Steve Muri, one of the attacking party, fell dead with a bullet in his heart. Charles Sloch was wounded in the side. The invaders fell back when the shooting commenced, and the arrival of a number of constables put a stop to further hostilities. A number of arrests were made.

Staten Island Has a Case of Murder.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The body of a well dressed man was washed ashore near the docks of the Consolidated Coal company at St. George, N. Y. The body was at first thought to be that of a drowned man, but the autopsy brought out the fact that the man was dead before his body was thrown into the water and that death resulted from a pistol shot or from a blow on the head from a club. The man was probably about 60 years old. He had sandy hair and vandyke beard. He had sandy hair feet 8 inches and weighed about 160 pounds. The clothing was good. It consisted of a blue serge suit, laced shoes, a white shirt, turndown collar and a blue scarf. On the tag of the shirt was the initial "B."

"Holy Ghosters" at Work.

LYME, Conn., Oct. 26.—This town is intensely excited over the doings of a small body of its residents known as the "Holiness band," or the "Holy Ghosters." In pursuit of their peculiar religious ideals it is alleged that these devotees have inflicted severe bodily injury upon an old woman living in the town, as a result of which a dozen of the prominent citizens of this city have been cited to appear in court and answer to a charge of assault.

Alleged Frauds on the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Over $90,000 of alleged fraudulent warrants on the United States treasury in the account of the Creek Indian Nation in Indian Territory have been discovered by government authorities. The alleged fraud was perpetrated in connection with the payment of the Creek Indian Nation debts, and only the barest details have reached here.

J. P. MORGAN SUED.

Railway Magnate Defendant In a Large Action.

AN ALLEGED $2,000,000 SWINDLE.

Charles Austin Bates Claims That He Has Been Defrauded of This Sum and Accuses the Well Known Banking Firm.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—According to a summons and complaint filed in the county clerk's office, Charles Austin Bates claims he has been swindled out of $2,000,000 worth of stock of the General Electric Railway company of Chicago, and he names J. Pierpont Morgan, the latter's son and other members of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. as defendants in the suit to recover it, the other defendants being Lucius Clark, A. G. Wheeler and Perry A. Hull of Chicago.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN.

Bates alleges that the General Electric Railway company was organized, with a capital of $5,000,000 in shares valued at $100 each, for the purpose of operating an electric railway in Chicago and that in November, 1895, he purchased 20,000 shares of the stock, which, he says, was not then in course of construction, but its stock, he declares, was and is now very valuable, although it then had no market value.

Soon after purchasing it, Bates says, the defendant Clark, who held a considerable amount of stock in the company, came to him and represented to him and other stockholders that in order to successfully carry out the object for which the corporation was created and to secure the passage of ordinances allowing the use of certain streets in Chicago it was necessary to have a controlling interest in the stock of the company placed temporarily in the hands of one person.

Believing this story, Bates says he turned over to Clark his 20,000 shares on Clark's promise to return them as soon as the objects he represented were accomplished, but that he has repeatedly tried in vain to get Clark to return the stock.

Bates says he then discovered that Clark transferred the stock to the defendant Hull; that the latter transferred it to a man named Stinson, who in turn transferred it to either J. Pierpont Morgan or to J. P. Morgan & Co., who, Bates says, now have it in their possession.

All the transfers, Bates declares, were pretended, and he brings suit to recover the stock and asks the court for an injunction restraining the defendants from disposing of the stock, as he declares there is danger of their selling it to parties who may think they obtained the stock in a bona fide way.

Judge Truax, in the supreme court, granted an order for the publication of the summons and complaint on the defendant Hull, who lives in Chicago, the other defendants being served here.

Connecticut Man Jailed In Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Patrick Stack and William Huggan, who were arrested here Sunday for breaking and entering a liquor store, are now booked as experts. Inspector Barry recognized Huggan as one of a notorious trio of brothers, all of whom are now under arrest for breaking and entering. George Huggan was arrested a few days ago on this charge. Another brother is in Charles Street jail awaiting trial on a charge of burglary. The officers say that one of the brothers is wanted at Sing Sing to serve a term of seven years. Three or four years ago he was convicted, and while on the way from New York to prison he escaped. The Huggans were born in Hartford.

Sale May Be Postponed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The Union Pacific reorganization committee has received word from Attorney General McKenna that he would ask permission of the courts to postpone the sale of the properties of the road under the foreclosure proceedings until Dec. 15. This means, according to the views of the many persons interested in the Union Pacific railroad, that the stockholders will be able to retain their holdings and at the same time have an opportunity to obtain final control of the entire system.

Will Leave the Presbyterian Church.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 26.—Professor Charles W. Shields of Princeton university authorizes the statement that in consequence of the "unjust, unconstitutional and defamatory action" of certain presbyteries and synods, involving his good name, he has decided for his own personal protection to separate himself from the Presbyterian church in a constitutional manner with the least possible delay.

THE KING OF CYCLISTS.

Wonderful Record Established by Little Jimmy Michael.

His Mile Made in 1:36 Really Eclipses Stocks' 1:35 2-5 Performance in England—Will Make Chicago His Home.

King of cyclists is little Jimmy Michael. Most marvelous is his record. Time itself was outstripped by the miniature Welsh boy at Willow Grove track, Philadelphia. Paced by a sextet and a quad, the youngster reeled off a mile in 1:36 and thereby reduced all former world's records for the distance.

It is true that a Londoner, I. W. Stocks, negotiated a mile at the Crystal palace in 1:35 2-5, but he was guided over the route by an electric motor and, of course, his feat cannot properly be reckoned along a geodetic course per kilometer. Should it be, Michael's mile would be ranked in America at any rate.

Cyclists have been expecting another notch to be clipped off the mile record and the majority of them looked to Michael to do it. Steadily the tiny foreigner has been improving since he first sprang into fame in Europe early last year.

Now the question is, will Michael prove himself a greater racer than he is now? Is he good, rash though the speculation may be, for 1:30? Can he do that on a circular track, and if he can, how fast can he travel on a straightaway?

Chicago wheelmen have been talking of little else than the Welshman's brilliant performances. Many of them are bold enough to predict that he will reduce still more the record and approximate, if not reach, the 1:30 mark. Charlie Root, Fred Gerlach and Jim Levey are leaders in cycledom and their opinions favored the idea that Michael had by no means reached his limit.

For years it has been the chief aim of racing cyclers to attack the mile record. There have been all sorts of them, records for flying and standing starts, paced and unpaced, forward and backward, professional and amateur, those of the old class A and class B men, and so on. Now, the standard mile has generally come to be looked upon as one made under the same conditions as that of Michael—flying start, paced by rolling machines without other aid.

JAMES MICHAEL.
(Holder of the American One-Mile Bicycle Record.

Seven years ago records began to be thought of importance. This is how they have gradually been lowered since then:

|---|---|
| W. C. Jones, standing start | 2:20 3-5 |
| F. J. Osmond, standing start | 2:19 |
| W. W. Windle, standing start | 2:15 |
| G. P. Taylor, standing start | 2:11 |
| H. C. Tyler, standing start | 2:08 4-5 |
| W. W. Windle, flying start | 2:02 3-5 |
| W. W. Windle, flying start | 1:58 1-5 |
| W. W. Windle, flying start | 1:56 4-5 |
| J. S. Johnson, flying start | 1:55 3-5 |
| J. P. Bliss, flying start | 1:52 3-5 |
| J. S. Johnson, flying start | 1:50 2-5 |
| O. Zeigler, flying start | 1:50 |
| H. C. Tyler, flying start | 1:48 3-5 |
| J. S. Johnson, flying start | 1:47 3-5 |
| M. F. Dornbusch, flying start | 1:45 |
| J. S. Johnson, flying start | 1:41 1-5 |
| A. Gardner, flying start | 1:42 2-5 |
| P. J. Berls, flying start | 1:40 2-5 |
| W. W. Hamilton, flying start | 1:39 1-5 |
| E. A. McDuffie, flying start | 1:38 1-5 |
| J. Platt Betts, flying start | 1:37 3-5 |
| J. Michael, flying start | 1:36 |

This was how Michael went the mile, by divisions:

|---|---|
| Quarter | 0:32 2-5 |
| Third | 0:51 1-5 |
| Two-thirds | 1:04 2-5 |
| Three-quarters | 1:12 1-5 |
| Mile | 1:36 |

Michael can soon be claimed by Chicago for her own. He has decided to go to that city and make it his future home. He is a wee bit of a boy—half inch more than five feet high. It is 33½ inches around his chest and it can be expanded only 1½ inches more. His legs are 30¼ inches in length, his arms 25, his forearm 8½, his biceps 8¾. His weight is 101 pounds. He is 21 years of age.

The wonder was born in Wales. Credit for first "finding" him is given to the noted English cycle trainer, C. Warburton. Tom Eck discovered him later and induced him to come to the United States in the latter part of 1896. Before that time he won a big lot of important races, besides landing numerous records for various European countries. Among his victims on the path were Jacquelin and Riviere, Lesna, Linton, Huret, Gerger, Opel, Gongoltz and Gireny.

Michael appeared in Chicago in the early part of October, 1896. It was at the dedication of the Garfield park track, October 2. The five-mile record on that occasion fell to his lot, and for days afterward he was feted as the idol of Chicagoans.

To Save Funeral Expenses.

Vesuvius being in eruption a young German undertook to be cremated free by the volcano. He placed himself close to the crater, in the path of the lava, and then shot himself through the head. His body was found, however, before the lava reached it.

Politeness of the Swedes.

In Sweden, if you address the poorest person in the street, you must lift your hat. The same courtesy is insisted upon if you pass a lady on the stairway. To enter a reading-room or a bank with one's hat on is regarded as impolite.

NO EXCUSE FOR IT.

Deaths occur every day for which there is no excuse. The lives of loved ones go out needlessly. In the graveyards are thousands of bodies that ought not to be there. Death comes and conquers when it could be driven away.

Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy

has stayed the hand of death in cases without number. There are people dying this minute who would cheat the undertaker if they could only have been induced to try this great medicine.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy makes the whole body well. It purifies the blood, and cures erysipelas, salt rheum, eczema, ulcers, rheumatism. It regulates the bowels, and cures headaches, biliousness, constipation. It is a tonic and builds up the system. It is the most certain cure for kidney diseases that the world ever saw.

Judge Clancy, of Hornellsville, N. Y., had liver trouble and blood disorder. He says the Favorite Remedy built him right up and greatly improved his health. It will build up thousands more if they will TRY IT.

JONATHAN DEYO.

From the Newburgh Telegram.

Jonathan Deyo, the Democratic candidate for the important office of District Attorney, was born in Newburgh in 1868. His father, Dr. Abraham Deyo, subsequently moved to Gardiner, Ulster county. Mr. Deyo graduated from the New Paltz Academy and subsequently studied law with Judge Clearwater and Barnard & Fiero, of Kingston. After his admission to the bar Mr. Deyo opened an office in Newburgh and has resided here and practiced his profession for the last six years.

There are many who will vote for Mr Deyo who may differ from him in their political views, because in so doing they sacrifice no political principle as the office is not strictly a political one; besides, the office is one that the people have always been inclined to give to young men of character and ability, knowing that in many instances it has been the stepping stone to the most brilliant and successful career in the legal profession. That Mr. Deyo possesses all the qualifications for the office, and that if elected his administration will be marked by brilliancy and success, is one of the features of his candidacy that is receiving the most favorable consideration from all irrespective of politics. People believe in advancing young men possessed of merit and laudable ambition.

Of Mr. Deyo the Port Jervis Gazette says: "He has gained considerable reputation as an eloquent pleader." The Newburgh Register pronounces him to be "One of the brightest young attorneys in Orange county."

Now the Prohibitionists Won't Have Lawrence.

The friends of Mr Lawrence, the Fourth Ward's Republican candidate for Alderman, are no guest in pleasant places. After running on the Prohibition ticket for ten or twelve years, he is now informed that the Prohibitionists in the ward cannot support him, as he is running on the Republican ticket.

OTISVILLE.

Death of Hector Savage—Fell from a Nut Tree—Conundrum Supper.

Correspondence of ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Hector Savage, of this village, who has been ill for some time, died at his home, Monday morning. He is survived by his wife and two children.

—John H. Houston, of Middletown, conducted the services in the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning. In the evening the congregation accepted the invitation of Rev Mr. Ramsey and attended the M. E. Church.

—Herman Otto, the oldest son of Mr. Otto, while gathering nuts fell a distance of 30 feet or more. His brothers, who were with him, summoned their father and the young man still unconscious, was put out to his home. Dr. Taylor assisted by Dr. Hulett found an arm broken and a slight injury to his head. The fracture was reduced, but at this writing he is not fully aroused consciousness, but the physicians think that unless something unexpected happens, he will recover, which is the wish of all his friends.

—The C. E. Society has received an invitation from the Epworth League to a communion supper at D. E. Corwright's, Mt. Hope, on Friday evening, Oct. 28.

BEAVERKILL

Death of Perry Wamsley—Many Personal Items.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Perry Wamsley died at the residence of his brother, George, Thursday, Oct. 21, at 5 o'clock. He was aged fifty-three years. For the last five years he had been sick and under the doctor's care.

—Miss Nora Bussey left, on Monday morning, for New York city, where she will visit friends for a few weeks.

—James Gray, of Deposit, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Miner.

—Mr. and Mrs. Toby have moved on their farm for the winter.

—Mrs. Jay Davidson has gone to Pennsylvania.

—Jay Davidson is painting his barn.

—Mrs. Wagner has moved to New York city.

Opening Hop of the Season.

The opening hop of the 24th Separate Company will be held at the armory, Thursday evening. There will be a band concert and a game of basket ball between two hot teams of the company. Tickets fifty cents.

NO WASTE OF WORDS.

Evidence Which is Right to the Point and Reliable.

Judge Frank Ives, of District Court of Crookston, Minn., says: For some time I have used Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with seeming great benefit, with few exceptions, I have not been so free from indigestion in twenty-five years.

Geo. W. Roosevelt, U. S. Consul to Brussels, Belgium: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, safe, pleasant to take, convenient to carry, give keen appetite, perfect digestion.

W. D. Tomlin, Mechanical Engineer, Duluth, Minn.: One box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets has done its work, and I am again gaining flesh and strength.

O. E. Ranson, Hustonville, Ky.; I was distressed and annoyed for two years with throwing up food, often two or three times a day; had no certainty of retaining a meal if I ate one. Four boxes of the tablets from my druggist have fully cured me. I find them pleasant to take, convenient to carry.

Over six thousand people in the state of Michigan alone in 1894 were cured o stomach troubles by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Full sized packages may be found at all druggists at 50 cents, or sent by mail on receipt of price from Stuart Co., Marshall Mich.

N. Y. Supreme Court, county of Orange—Margaret A. VanNort, plaintiff, against Samuel H. Wilcox and Violet V. Wilcox, his wife; Ira L. Case and Bella G. Case, his wife; C. Emmet Crawford, Elting D. B. France, James H. Crawford, Charles H. Mapes, James E. Horton and Charles Tremper, defendants.

In pursuance and by virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale, rendered in the above entitled action at a Special Term of the Supreme Court held at the Court House in the City of Newburgh, and State of New York, on the 9th day of October, 1897, Hon. Michael H. Hirschberg, justice, and duly entered in the Orange County Clerk's office, I the undersigned referee, named in said judgment, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the Holding House, in the city of Middletown, N. Y., on Friday, the 5th day of November, 1897, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of that day all and singular the lands and premises in said judgment described as follows:

All that tract or parcel of land situate in the city of Middletown, county of Orange and State of New York, bounded as follows: Beginning in the center line of Grand street, in said city of Middletown, at a point three hundred and twenty-seven feet south forty-one and one-fourth degrees west from a point in Main street, being described as follows: ninety-nine feet north eighty-three degrees west from the center of a maple tree in the west corner of the door yard in front of C. S. Slauson's house and forty-eight feet distance north seventy-six degrees east an ailanthus tree on the south side of Main street and thirty-three feet three inches southerly from an ailanthus tree standing on the north side of Main street and the west of Grand street from the above described point in Main street. The said place of beginning lies south forty-one and one-fourth degrees west three hundred and twenty-seven feet in the center line of Grand street as above stated, and runs from thence south forty-eight and three-fourths degrees east two hundred and forty feet to a stake; thence north forty-one and one-fourth degrees east fifty feet to a stake; thence north forty-eight and three-fourths degrees west two hundred and forty feet to the center line of Grand street; thence forty-one and one-fourth degrees west along said center line of Grand street fifty feet to the place of beginning, containing more or less

Grand street is laid out and used as a public highway fifty feet wide; twenty-five feet in width of said street is to be kept open for that purpose over the lands hereby conveyed as described in a deed thereof from Walter T. Griggs and wife to Jennie H. Roe, dated December 31, 1881, and recorded in the Orange County Clerk's office January 3, 1882, in Book 309 of Deeds at Page 484.

Reference being here made thereto, and also in a deed from said Jennie H. Roe and her husband to said James J. Wood, dated November 1, 1882, and recorded in the Orange County Clerk's office in Book 317 of Deeds at Page 241, November 3, 1882.

Also all that tract or parcel of land situate in the city of Middletown, Orange county, State of New York, and described as follows: Beginning in the center line of Grand avenue, in said city, at the north corner of a lot now owned by the said Wood and runs northeasterly along said Wood's line two hundred and forty feet; thence northerly and parallel with the line of Grand avenue not to exceed six inches; thence westerly parallel with the first mentioned line to the center line of Grand avenue; thence southerly more or less to the point or place of beginning, containing so much as may be covered by the cornice of the dwelling as it now stands upon the lands of the said Wood not exceeding sixteen inches northerly from the eaves of said dwelling. This grant is intended to supply any and all deficiency there may be if any in the width of said Wood's lot to the extent of what land may be covered by the projection of the cornice of the dwelling as it now stands on said Wood's lot, said line to be parallel with said Wood's northerly line, as the same is mentioned, described and set forth in a deed thereof from Oliver F. Reeve and wife to said James J. Wood dated January 25, 1889 reference here made thereto and being the same premises conveyed to Ira L. Case by William B Royce. Referee, by deed dated March 29, 1894.

TUESDAY, OCT 26, 1897.

Stephen Woh, one of the Democratic candidates for Coroner, ought to receive a very large vote in this city. He is a good citizen and, if elected, will make a good officer, doing his full duty but doing only his duty and putting the county to no unnecessary expense by holding needless inquests.

Abram H. May, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, is making a good fight. He has many elements of strength and popularity and will receive a very large vote in Goshen, where his worth and manliness are known. If elected he will enter on the discharge of his official duties untrammeled by deals and wearing the collar of no boss. Vote for him.

The Democratic county ticket is daily growing in strength and popularity with the voters. The candidates are all clean men, well fitted for the offices for which they have been named and citizens feel that the county's interests may safely be committed to their care. Other influences are working in behalf of the Democratic ticket, among them popular disgust at the bare faced deal by which the Republican nomination for Sheriff was secured by Mr. Strong, the righteous wrath of the people at the third term nomination of Mr. Taggart for County Clerk and the widespread belief that the interests of the taxpayers will be served by the presence of a Democratic Superintendent at the county house.

Charles B. Wood, the Democratic candidate for Superintendent of the Poor, will receive a very large vote. He was a brave soldier, has faithfully discharged official trusts, is a good citizen in every sense of the word and possesses the qualities needed in a Superintendent of the Poor. He will be watchful of the needs and comfort of the unfortunates who are dependent on the county's charity and will make it his constant care to see that none of the people's money is squandered. A Democratic superintendent will act as a wholesome check on the two Republican superintendents who hold over. The people of Orange county will consult their own interests if they vote for Mr. Wood.

MANIAC'S MURDEROUS FRENZY.

Crazed With Drink Thomas Monahan Shoots and Kills Three Men.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

GORHAM, N. H., Oct. 26—Thomas Monahan, while crazed with drink, this morning, shot and instantly killed Joseph Gauthier, a Grand Trunk employe.

After killing Gauthier, Monahan pursued another fellow workman named Bryant, who had been compelled to witness his crime and who ran and hid.

Some time later a laborer named Talyrand Goodenough, met Monahan walking on the track. The latter, waving his gun, rushed wildly upon Goodenough, declaring he had killed two men already, and ordering him to move along. With the gun pointed at him Goodenough started and marched down a near by street around and through the village. Goodenough was unarmed and finally the madman left him.

Selectmen Gates and Fogg met Monahan on Church street, a few minutes afterward. Without a word Monahan leveled his gun and fired the contents in Gates' face, piercing his neck in many places and severing the jugular vein.

As the gun flashed, Fogg attempted to seize Monahan, but the latter clubbed the gun and aimed heavy blows at Fogg's head. Fogg struck the gun away with his arm and the men clinched and went down. Fogg finally gaining the mastery and disarming Monahan, while a crowd which had collected assisted in securing the murderer.

As the sheriff led him away, the madman boasted of his murderous achievements, saying he had "three bloods" on his hands. The officials made search to determine the truth of Monahan's words and found the dead body of a third victim three hundred yards from the freight yards. The man was afterwards identified as Wm. Thotts, of Shelburn. Otherwise unknown here.

The inquest on the death of Gauthier resulted in the verdict, "Wilful murder at the hands of one Thomas Monahan." The same verdict was rendered in the case of Thorts. Monahan was held for the April term of court.

NO MORE BODIES FOUND.

More Wreckage Raised at Garrisons—A Sheer Drop of Many Feet.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

GARRISONS, Oct. 26—The engine, tender and express car were raised above the surface of the river at noon. It is alleged that a small safe is missing from the express car. It is probably at the bottom of the river. It could hardly have been stolen as the car is closely watched.

No more bodies have been recovered.

The rebuilding of the track with a sand embankment continued this morning. The intention is to build a new retaining wall where the old one stood. Railroad surveyors to-day found that where the break occurred the water is twenty-five feet deep, showing a sheer drop almost.

The most pathetic scene of the disaster was enacted this morning when the body of Thomas Riley, of St. Louis, was identified by his widow who come from London with Riley's mother and whom he was journeying to meet when death overtook him.

His Head Struck an Overhead Bridge Near Oxford.

From Our Goshen Correspondent.

A tramp who was riding on top of a box car on a west bound Erie train, this morning, was struck on the head by an overhead bridge near Oxford and very badly hurt. He was brought to Goshen and taken from there to Orange Farm. He refused to give his name or to say anything more about himself than that he was on his way to his home in Cleveland.

DEATH OF THOS. G. ALVORD.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

SYRACUSE, Oct. 26—Thomas Gold Alvord, "Old Salt," died, this morning, of old age. He was born in 1810 and served for many terms in the Assembly and Senate

OBITUARY.

Jame Hulse.

James Hulse, who for nearly all his long life resided in the town of Mount Hope, a few miles from this city, died at the home of his son, H S Hulse, in Port Jervis, Sunday evening. The cause of death was paralysis, he having sustained a stroke two years ago.

Mr. Hulse was born Jan. 13, 1812, and was the son of Thomas and Phebe Hulse, who then lived on their farm two miles east of Middletown. He is the last of the family of thirteen children, all dying at an old age. He was eighty-five years, ten months and eleven days old.

He married Miss Hannah Jane Sweezy, now deceased, and by this union four sons were born, namely: Thomas, of Deckertown, N. J.; Chas. H., of Goshen: H. S. Hulse, of Port Jervis, and one son dying in infancy. A half-brother, G. L. Noble, of Philadelphia, Pa., also survives.

Mr. Hulse has made his home for the past twelve years with his son, H S. Hulse, on Sullivan avenue, Port Jervis. Though not a member of any church he was a regular attendant upon the service of the Presbyterian Church of Port Jervis.

The body will be brought to this city, Wednesday, on train 30, and the interment will be in Hillside Cemetery.

Albert W. Tucker.

Albert W. Tucker, a member of Company B. 124th Regiment, died suddenly, Monday, of heart failure at his home at Titusville, Pa.

The deceased was a brother of the late Andrew Tucker, who resided here. A sister, Mrs. Asa Tucker White lives at Poughkeepsie.

The funeral will be held, Thursday, at No. 9 Chestnut street, Titusville.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

PROCEEDINGS OF LAST NIGHT'S REGULAR MEETING.

The Meeting Quiet and Orderly but Followed by a Slight Breeze—Mrs. Thrall's Bequests Formally Accepted—Vetoes by the Mayor—Many Resolutions and Ordinances—Reports of Committees—Bills Audited.

The Common Council meeting, Monday night, was as tame as the famous Jumbo. Not a word was said to ripple any of the waters save in one instance when Mr. Hirst referred to the cause of Mr. Crans' anxiety for the cleaning of a private ditch through the vacant black dirt lands. It was passed over by the Alderman from the Second until after the meeting, when he overhauled Mr. Hirst in the hall and egged on by Mr. Memory threatened to lick him. A report of the affair will be found in another column.

The full board was present and the business brought up was as follows:

HEARINGS.

Daniel Finn, attorney for the Thrall estate, asked that the city accept Mrs. Thrall's bequests and provisions, which was done on motion of Mr. Bastian. On the same gentleman's motion the arc light was ordered moved to the center of the park, as Mrs. Thrall had requested.

There were no objections to the East avenue sewer assessment but it was not confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS.

GENTLEMEN—Permit me to express my regrets in not being able to be with you this evening.

To the members of the Common Council who have paid their respects to me by calling during my serious illness, I thank you most heartily and am very sorry that it was not in my power to give you a warmer welcome.

Trusting that your deliberations may be harmonious and in the interest of our thriving city, I remain yours truly,

D. W. BERRY, Mayor.

The Mayor returned with his disapproval:

Geo. A. Swalm & Son's bid for steam heating in Excelsior and Eagle rooms, saying: "Not lawful; see the charter."

A sewer in Short street.

Hoyt & Galloway's bid for Bonnell street sewer pipe. "No funds."

Appropriation of $12.50 to prepare amendments to the charter for printer. "No funds to throw away. I believe a general charter for cities will be adopted."

MAY BUILD A PRIVATE SEWER.

Pound & Jordan were given permission to construct a sewer from their property on Cortland street to the North street sewer. They agree to construct it under the city's direction, and give it to the city when the remainder of the street is sewered, deducting the it own probable assessment.

HOSE SPOILED BY TROLLEY CAR.

Chief Higham reported that a trolley car had ruined a length of hose. Supt. Reed corroborated, saying that the motorman had been signaled to stop at East Main and Prospect streets, where the accident happened, but the motorman did not obey. It was referred to the Fire Committee.

A communication marked "Bid of Geo. A. Swalm & Son, for sewer pipe," was not opened as the city has not advertised for bids.

RESOLUTIONS AND ORDINANCES PASSED.

By Mr. Hirst—That property owners remove stones remaining from Wayand-avenue's improvement.

By Mr Hirst—That a dang rous hole in the rear of the Platt building on Centre street be covered with a grating in sixty days.

By Mr. Hirst—That a petition from the McBrair Electrical Heating Company for permission to lay subways under the walks be referred to the City Attorney.

By Mr. Hirst—That crosswalk at West Main street and Wallkill avenue be repaired.

By Mr. Memory—An ordinance, published in another column, relating to the tying of truck and omnibus teams, the licensing of the same, etc. Referred to the City Attorney on motion of Mr. Allen.

By Mr. Tierney—That the Street Commissioner remove the flagging and curbing belonging to J. R. Skelton now piled up at Wickham avenue and Cottage street, to some other place, and notify Mr. Skelton where it is.

By Mr. Ogden—An ordinance ousting the Fraction Company to stop all cars at Wickham avenue and North street, the same precautions to be taken as at the Erie crossing. A fine of $5 for each violation.

By Mr. Ogden—That the Chief of Police notify the Common Council of any violations of the city ordinances which come under the observation of the force. He made a flowery speech and paralyzed the Board by winding up with, "The police are the feelers; they are the antennæ of the body politic."

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

By Mr. Bastian—That the Centre street building repairs were completed, and the bills all handed in.

By Mr. Bastian—That a fence had been constructed along Centre street line at the jail to keep children from pressing their fat little noses against the iron bars of the door while profanity and obscenity emanated from the degenerates within.

By Mr. Hirst—That articles ordered for fire houses had been purchased. That Excelsiors had no way of heating their rooms upstairs or down. Mr. Bastian said: "Get them blankets." Mr. Memory added: "Get them a pair of boxing gloves."

By Mr. Ayers—That the incandescent lamp reflectors be painted and that several lights be discontinued; that the mutilation of shade trees for the stringing of light wires cease, and that the city prepare to erect its own plant. The report was adopted.

THE BLACK DIRT DITCH.

By Mr. Allen—That the black dirt ditch is on private property and the city has no right to clean it nor is it its duty to do so.

There was considerable discussion of this matter. In spite of this adverse report Mr. Crans moved that the superintendent of streets make whatever repairs are necessary along the black dirt brook for a sum not exceeding $20. Seconded by Mr. Bastian.

Mr. Hirst—I am opposed to going on private property with the city's money. I've got no fish to fry. I've got nothing to make. When complaint came that a brook was stopped up at the Wickham avenue culvert we cleaned it out and the property owners opened the brook. I am satisfied to have the black dirt brook cleaned at the culvert. We've got no right to go on private property with the city's money. I'm not running for office, and trying to catch votes."

Mr. Mance—I take the same view that Mr. Hirst does and shall vote "no."

The question was put and Mr. Crans' only supporters were Aldermen Bastian and Memory.

By Mr. Hirst—That the Street Commissioner be authorized to clean the mouths of any of the brooks on the city property. Carried.

By Mr. Allen—That wooden street signs be secured for corners.

Mr. Bastian opposed, saying that wooden signs of a year's age "look like the very devil." No action was taken.

By Mr. Crans—That two weeks from date he will introduce the Bonnell street sewer matter and endeavor to pass it over the Mayor's veto.

By Mr. Memory—That the legal notice prepared by the clerk be given that all properties on which taxes are not paid will be sold thirty days from Nov. 1.

MR. CRANS' FIST WAS DOUBLED

He Will "Put it on to" Mr. Hirst If Any More Election Schemes are Exposed.

After the Common Council had adjourned, Monday night, the members were sauntering through the hall when Mr. Crans, (whom the gods would destroy they first make mad) stepped up to Mr. Hirst, who is old enough to be Mr. Crans' father, and said:

"Don't you ever come up on the hill and talk as you did here, to-night. Old man, do you hear? Don't you ever talk to me again like that."

Mr. Hirst replied: "I'm not running for office and I don't believe in spending the city's money on private property."

Mr. Crans walked half way down the stairs, and then Mr. Memory began to do his share of "picking on" Mr. Hirst. He insinuated that there were some things about Mr. Hirst's actions that might be exposed, that were questionable, etc.

Mr. Hirst replied that he gave him the right to expose all he could expose, and while they were talking Mr. Crans ran back up the stairs, and shaking his clenched fists under the old gentleman's chin, he said excitedly:

"Old man, don't you ever talk again like that to me, or I'll put it on to you."

Mr. Hirst wisely made no angry reply to the attack of the Second Ward's candidate, and he walked down stairs while a half dozen stood about who said nothing, thought a good deal and would have acted had any violence been attempted upon Mr. Hirst by Mr. Crans or his backer.

Hospital Managers' Appeal to Farmers

The managers of Thrall Hospital appeal to farmers in the vicinity of Middletown to bring or send to the hospital, Thursday, gifts of vegetables, fruit or farm produce of any kind. They feel confident that every farmer has something which will be of use to the hospital that he can spare without missing it and they ask that the hospital and its needs be kept in mind.

The Chorus Choir Meets To-night.

A goodly number of singers from Pastor's congregations met last evening in the First Congregational Church lecture room to organize a chorus choir. The leader, S. D. Hampson, feels that it is desirable to hold another meeting, this evening, and hopes that all singers who are willing to join the chorus choir will be present. Mr. Hampson wants at least one hundred voices.

The White Slave Pleased a Fair Sized Audience.

The "White Slave" was well acted and well received by a good sized audience at the Casino, Monday night. The thrilling scenes were produced with splendid effect.

George Gould's Lucky Purchase.

At the sale of the real estate of the late George C. Woolsey, in Kingston, Saturday, George Gould bought 2,658 acres of heavily wooded land near his Furnace Lake property for $1,010.

LINCOLN CLUB IN TOWN.

Came 175 Strong and Every Man Out for a Good Time—Prominent Guests

The second of Paterson's eight wards is especially proud of its Lincoln Club, and when ever the club takes an outing all of the big guns in politics go along.

That is why when the passengers alighted from four cars on a special train, which reached here at 10:24 over the S. and W., many Middletowners recognized such prominent men as Mayor John Hinchliffe, members of the Board of Aldermen, President T. C. Wright, John Wright, W. W. Stalter, J. J. Post, J. W. Sturr, J. H. Boylan, James Miller, State Senator Robert Williams, Assemblyman Henry W. Gledhill, Assemblyman Phineas Bridge, Candidate for Assembly Wood McKee, City Tax Assessor Joseph Addy, Sergt.-at-Arms of District Court Bernard Westerfield, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department John Stagg, Chairman of the Board of Chosen Freeholders J. J. Van Nort and Freeholder Jacob Gerow, of the second ward, and Arthur W. Bishop, President of the S. P. C. A.

There were many local people at the depot who seemed to know most of the visitors and there was a general hand shaking before the line of march was taken up.

The party left Paterson at 8 o'clock, officered as follows:

Major—David A. Zdaff.
Adjutant—Wm. Cooper.
Capt. of Co. A.—Robert Sinclair
First Lieut.—Chas. Brown.
Second Lieut.—Joseph Fair.
Capt. of Co. B.—Geo. B. McCrea.
First Lieut.—W. R. Harding.
Second Lieut.—Thos. Folding.

The civil officers are:

President—Geo. W. Pollitt.
Vice-Pres.—David Young.
Rec. Sec.—Robt. A. Roberts
Fin. Sec.—Robt. Sinclair.
Treas.—Jos. Addy.
Finance Com.—Jos. Mason, Wm. Levy, Jos. Farr.

They were greeted by Alderman Hirst and Chief Higham who gave them Mayor Berry's permit to "own the town." The line of march was taken up and the Hasse band of sixteen pieces and the drum corps of twelve pieces made music galore. "Hot Time in the Old Town" was the favorite selection, and everybody was happy from big President Pollitt down to the short man with the boil on his neck.

Dell Philion carried an immense bouquet of products of a vegetable garden, but he was mobbed and the bouquet confiscated.

Arriving at the Commercial House the banners were stored and three special cars took the party to Midway Park. Here Caterer Rowley had a nice hot chowder ready, and after a plate of this the whole party adjourned to the shooting grounds.

The target was placed on a tree in the "Hopper" and the men blazed away until 3 o'clock, when a fine hot dinner was served by a dozen of Caterer Rowley's staff.

The club will leave for home at 6:30.

Pure

Blood is essential to perfect health. This is a scientific fact. Every organ, nerve and muscle must be fed and nourished. It is the function of the blood to furnish this nourishment, and the quality of nourishment these organs receive depends on the quality of the blood. If the blood is

Rich

Pure and full of vitality it will properly feed and support the whole mechanism of the body. If it is poor and thin disease and suffering will be inevitable. The great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in curing stubborn cases of scrofula, eczema, rheumatism, neuralgia and many other similar troubles, is based upon its power to enrich and purify the

Blood

This is also the reason for the great popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a building up medicine. By making pure, rich blood, it gives vigor and vitality even in trying seasons, when, owing to impoverished blood, thousands are complaining of weakness and weariness, lack of energy and ambition, and that tired feeling.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

IN THE DUSK.

On balmy evenings in the fall I set beside the door,
An' read the Bible till it's late an' I can see no more—
The Psalms with their aboidin' faith, er some sweet chapters where God tells us that He'll not forsake us nuther where we are.
I shet it then an gaze ahead where everything is still,
Except some katydid 'at sings in spite er autumn's chill,
An' whilst pumgranits smell as though the world was dipped in musk,
I think an dream an wonder like, wrapped in the broodin' dusk.

I'm eighty—"an' a child again," the young folks often say,
It may be so, fer somehow now my thoughts go far away,
An' I can see as plain as life the things er other years—
Myself a boy 'at knowed not much er sighs, neglect an' tears,
A rompin' yonder in the yard, my father's eyes on me,
An' mother settin' where I set an' singin' tenderly:
The round moon shinin' like a white magnoly from its husk
Upon us happy ones at home there in the evenin' dusk.

An', then, again thought wunders on, an' I'm a man once more,
An' see my children patterin' round, an' in an' out the door—
One with his little baby curls, one with her soft blue eyes,
Both bringin' to the world ag'in some hints er Paradise.
An' in the hedge beside the road the mockin' bird sung sweet;
An' moths sucked eagerly the flowers that blossomed round our feet;
An' on the sight a shootin' star would form a flashin' tusk
'At fer a moment pierced the sky, then melted in the dusk.

Filled full er thoughts er other days—bein' useless anyhow—
Few care, I s'pose, when God may place death's mark upon my brow;
But as fer me, I wish the change would come when, as of old,
The children kind er hover near in an unbroken fold;
When high above the shaddery fields the stars seem lamps that wait
To guide the feet along the gloom this side the golden gate;
An' while the strip'd pumgranits smell, an' earth seems steeped in musk,
An' I set here a-wonderin' like, wrapped in the broodin' dusk.

HE COULD SHOOT.

Great Execution Done by Reuben Pettibone's Son.

"THE peculiar success that attended my remarkable father, Reuben Pettibone, as a hunter," said the man from over Sinnemahoning way, "was due to his marvelous knowledge of the anatomical structure of wild beasts as much as to his unerring skill as a marksman.

"'It isn't enough to know,' he used to say, 'just where a deer's heart is located in the animal's body, or the exact spot in the interior of a bear where the kidneys lie snugly ensconced, and then to be able to sock a bullet there if you want to be sure of your game. Not by any means. A deer will go a mile easy enough with a bullet in its heart before it will drop, and you may plug a hole clear through a bear's kidneys, and yet he will hump himself and get far out of your reach in a laurel patch before he finds out that he is a goner. You may get the deer, after a good deal of trouble and suspense, but you'll never get the bear. The safest and only profitable way to hunt, to say nothing of being merciful to your beast, is to kill your game dead where it stands or where it runs. Thus, always sever a ventricle of a deer's heart when you shoot, and all you have to do then is to walk up and skin the deer. Never skirmish around to draw bead on a bear's kidneys. Separate the spinal cord at the neck with your bullet, and the bear will die in the middle of a breath. Everybody knows,' my remarkable father used to say, 'that if you shoot the head off a pheasant as it swoops like the wind through the thicket, the pheasant will drop dead. Of course it will, but then see what a looking-looking thing the dead bird is, with its ragged, bloody, headless neck. Grazing your pheasant thus is cruel. Just at the base of the bird's bill, below the eyes, is a bunch of nerves. A sudden shock to those nerves will kill the bird instantly. Direct your rifle ball, as the bird takes wing, so that it will cleave over that bunch of nerves sure-like, and if it was a hair closer it would scrape the skin. A stroke of lightning couldn't drop that bird any quicker than the coppery son of that passing bullet will. Remember this, my son,' Reuben Pettibone used to say, 'and never waste pain or ammunix your game.'

"Of course you have all heard how my remarkable father used to bring in his scores and scores of birds, fat, plump and not one mutilated, but you never saw before, I guess, by what manner he was able to do it."

"We didn't, hey?" said the man in the red, blue, yellow, green, pink and purple Mackinaw jacket. "Well, I know'd it, by gum! An' I kin fetch 'em in just the same way he done it!"

"What!" exclaimed the man from over Sinnemahoning way. "Do you mean to say that you can paralyze—"

"Don't mean to say nothin' o' the kind!" interrupted the man in the variegated jacket. "But I kin snare, by gum!"

"Mackinaw," said the man from over Sinnemahoning way, after a pause, "your insinuation comes with ill grace from a man who borrows all the tobacco he chews."

This was hard on the man in the many-hued jacket. He was just on the point of asking the man next to him for a bite off his plug, and, although he wanted the chew badly, he didn't dare give immediate corroboration to the man from Sinnemahoning's remark, so he postponed asking for the chew and suffered.

The man from over Sinnemahoning way resumed and resumed.

"'Praxiteles,' my remarkable father used to say, 'never waste, pain or ammunix your game. Let anatomical knowledge go hand in hand with knowing how to shoot. Then, if you keep your powder dry, you'll tumble things tremendous.' And I followed his advice, and I have tumbled things, I take it. Indeed I have. But of all the tumbling of things I ever did nothing ever reflected more credit on my remarkable father than a neat bit of tumbling I did once down on the lower Sinnemahone. I claim no credit for it for myself. It was neat, indeed; but far be it from me to say that I ever would have thought of doing it if it had not been for the precepts and example of Reuben Pettibone. Never!

"Of all the multitudinous things I have tumbled I have seldom gone out with vengeance in my heart to tumble 'em; but this time I did. I did, indeed. Good reason I had for it, too, although I had been more than patient. When the ninth sheep disappeared from my pasture, though, I thought it was time to call a halt on the bear, and I took my rifle and went out, vengeful and determined. I got on the track of the bear about a mile down the Sinnemahone and followed it three miles. The stream made a sudden bend right there, and as I moved cautiously around the bend I came in sight of the sheep stealer, stretched out on the bank sound asleep a hundred yards or so ahead of me. He wasn't in a position for me to give him a dead shot, and vengeful as I was I could not bear to think of giving him even a moment of suffering. I was on the point of hollering at him to scare him up and show me a proper shot when I happened to raise my eyes, and there five rods ahead lay a big buck chewing his cud in sweet contentment. Deer were uncommon scarce that season, and I had use for just such a buck as that, so I concluded to postpone my vengeance a moment, kill the deer and then attend to the bear before he could get into the brush, for I knew he would be up and off at the sound of my gun. I was just about to run my eye over the gun barrel and let the buck die with the taste of his cud still in his mouth when what should come strutting out into the open side by side but a big cock pheasant and his hen. I had no sooner seen them than a comprehensive idea struck me, and I proceeded at once to carry it out.

"'This will be the neatest piece of work I have ever done,' said I to myself. 'I wish father was here to see it.'

"I was apprehensive of only one thing, and that was that the bear might wake up before things were in proper shape. I watched the two pheasants as they strutted on out side by side. I was ready to act the instant they got to the point my nice calculation had fixed on. They got there at last. I gave a yell. The bear woke up and sprang to his feet, broadside toward me. The buck rose like a flash at the same instant. The birds got up neck and neck. I fired. The bear sank down and lay there as if he had resumed his nap. The two pheasants dropped to the ground side by side, just the same as they had got up. The buck tumbled where he was lying when I woke him.

"'If you could see this, Reuben Pettibone,' said I 'it's pleased you'd be, I'm sure, to know what an apt pupil I have been, indeed, and to see how deep your lessons did sink in!'

"Yes. The bear's spinal cord was severed at the neck, the bullet having plowed there just deep enough to do it and then gone on its way. There wasn't a mark on the pheasants. The bullet had skimmed that bunch of nerves on each and shocked them to death. The right ventricle of the deer's heart was cut in two as if it had been done with a knife—so nice had been my—"

The man in the red, blue, pink, yellow, green and purple mackinaw jacket got out of his chair, lifted one hand and opened his mouth as if to speak.

"Here, Mackinaw," said the man from over Sinnemahoning way, handing him his plug of tobacco, "take a chew with me!"

Mackinaw took the plug, bit off a chew, put the plug into his pocket and passed out slowly, looking dazed.

The man from over Sinnemahoning way mused a moment and then went homeward, grinning as if he had been having fun.—N. Y. Sun.

The first few minutes of a fire is the critical time; a quarter of a minute is worth saving. Millions may be lost in that time. When anyone is sick every instant is precious, particularly at the beginning before disease gets any headway.

When you first begin to feel "below the mark"; when you are not getting all the strength you need out of your food, when you are languid and indisposed, it is time to try the toning, strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It "extinguishes" disease by making rich, healthy blood, full of the life-giving red corpuscles which drive out disease and flood the vital organs with fresh vitality.

Every disease which has its seat in the blood is cured by this marvelous "Discovery" after all other remedies have failed. Its effects seem little short of miraculous in curing obstinate, chronic throat and bronchial difficulties and even consumption.

"Run-down" people, delicate women, pale and puny children gain flesh, strength, color and nerve force by using this marvelous "Discovery." It does not make flabby fat like so many "emulsions," but hard, healthy, muscular tissues. At all medicine stores.

AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Mr. Edsall's Chrysanthemum Show—A Bicyclist's Mishap—Change of Correspondents—Hunting and Fishing—Judge Sweezy's Purchase—Five Points Mission Work—Many Other Notes.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—Chas. S. Edsall will hold his chrysanthemum show, at which his friends are annually entertained, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 3.

—To Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Vernon, a daughter was born on Sunday at Newark, N. J.

—While riding his bicycle on Sunday, W. S. M. Dixon, an employe of the Goshen Hand laundry, was thrown and badly sprained both wrists. The accident happened four miles beyond Deckertown and was caused by a wheelman crashing into Mr. Dixon from behind while descending a steep hill. Mr. Dixon remounted his wheel and rode thirty miles after the accident occurred.

—James E. Landy, who has ornamented Goshen's journalistic circles for a number of years as the correspondent of the Middletown Times, has resigned his position. He will continue to do special newspaper work. J. B. Scott is "Jimmy's" successor as the Times's Goshen man.

—W. W. Whiddit attended a reception in New York city, last night.

—Frank Wright and Engineer Morgan are searching Sullivan county for fish and game. They will be absent several days.

—"His Honor," J. B. Sweezy, has purchased the property, corner Scotchtown avenue and Main street, opposite the north side of the "Interpines," and will occupy it.

—A wandering "hobo," who dropped off a passing freight train, stopped last night to rest in the dark hallway which leads to the upper part of T. D. Tuthill's building, on West Main street, and while resting fell asleep. Mr. Tuthill on closing up for the night locked him in. The man was aroused by the noise and expressed a desire to get out. It was passing strange that just at that time the bolt refused to work and the door wouldn't open. But after a while the "hobo" was liberated. He had been nearly prostrated by the excitement attendant upon his enforced detention and he immediately wandered off in search of a place where he might slumber undisturbed.

—Rev. Mr Sanford, of Five Points' Mission, New York city, will tell of his work at the Methodist Episcopal Church, next Sunday.

—During the fore part of next month James Platt, of Stony Ford, will sell at auction his entire stock of horses and the adjuncts of his training stable and engage in a different branch of the business.

—John Hogan, for many years manager of the Stony Ford stud and who has been living during the past eighteen months at Bernardsville, N. J., will return to Goshen in a few weeks and take up his residence on Orange avenue in the house now occupied by Mrs. Lawrence and daughter. Mr. Hogan will deal in horses.

—Mrs. Lawrence and daughter will shortly go to East Orange, N. J., where they will spend the winter with Mrs. Lawrence's son, now a resident of that place.

THINK BEER WILL GET THEM.

Bedell and Taggart are Going to Buy Beer for the Manorchor, Thursday Night.

Alderman Bastian asked to be excused at the Council meeting at 9.30, Monday night, saying that he had an appointment. A few moments later he was telling the good fellows who constitute the membership of the jolly Manorchor that next Thursday night he wanted everybody to come out and hear him introduce the Republican machine candidates for the Assembly in this district and Orange county and Bedell and Taggart. He also announced the members that there would be free beer and that these candidates would try it.

The righteous indignation of the members at this effort to introduce politics into a social meeting was quite amusing. It was simply and brotherly disgusting to the more decent members. They do not know, however, what the copperheads intended to do [illegible] democratic bosses have been using in which they have centered the gang all along, but now, in the extremity of their troublous campaign, they have concluded to include what our Republican friends calls "the Dutch" in a free beer act.

Bedell, who has the glad hand and the restless eyes, and Taggart, who has grown rich while holding for two terms the best office in county, are pining for a chance to tell the members of the Manorchor how much they have done for Orange county and how much more they are going to "do" it.

Go out, boys, everyone of you, and invite a few friends. Bedell and Taggart have money to spend and the larger the crowd the more popular they'll think they are.

Has Done Much Good.

"My body was covered with eruptions caused by impure blood. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and it completely cured me. I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla since then and it has done me so much good that I recommend it to everyone suffering with impure blood. It tones up the system."—S. J. Tuck, Maryland, N. Y.

SELAH STRONG IN TOWN

Trying His Hand at Placating and Subduing the "Kickers."

The local Republican bosses sent out an emergency call, yesterday, and Selah E. Strong, candidate for Sheriff, arrived in town, this afternoon, to try his hand at subduing the "kickers" with whom Bedell and Taggart have been wrestling in vain. Mr. Strong is broad shouldered and big handed and has a voice like a mule driver's: he has, too, a persuasive smile and a conciliatory manner, but he can neither drive nor coax Republicans, who have revolted against boss rule, into again wearing Boss Odell's collar or licking the boots of Ed. Tompkins, Charlie Boyd or Dan Finn.

Port Jervis Man Arrested in Binghamton.

Elton J. Ross, of Port Jervis, was arrested in Binghamton, Monday, charged with obtaining a horse from Hiram Towner, under false pretenses. He agreed to give a quantity of lumber in exchange for the animal, but when Mr. Towner went after his lumber, which was at Pond Eddy, he found it covered by an attachment in favor of C. A. Maxwell.

THE LABEL!

When buying clothes, it is very hard to judge whether garments are "all wool" or not. The unscrupulous merchant will stop short of nothing to effect a sale, and unless you are a most excellent judge you will certainly suffer. All this is entirely changed when you buy clothing from us. No Garment, No Matter How Costly, is All Wool Unless It Has Our Label. You need not be a judge of goods just look for the label, and when you see that it is all wool, because it "bears our label." We show most excellent assortment of Men's Overcoats from $3.75 up to $20. Children's Reefers from $1.98 to $4.88, with reefer and ulster collars. A full assortment of Children's Cape Overcoats. Knee Pants!—We are headquarters selling pants, others charge 40 and 50c, at 25c. Buy a pair of Knee Pants, "Budwig's Own," double seat, double knee and patent waistband, only 25c a pair. Remember we make all our own clothing and save you therefore the middleman's profit, $3 on every $10, and give you better made and better fitting clothing. Look for this label when you buy clothing.
